Overview

Every Tom, Dick and Harry cannot become an acceptable Tutor. It is a natural / inherent aptitude, impulse and or capacity to have passion skills, experience and Tutor's hidden talents for their Students. This instinct [inborn intuitive power] is further polished and groomed by the following 3 factors:

1. Highest Education obtained
2. Total number of years' Experience
3. Profile Rating [as liked by others]

LaoJee eCoaching has set up above 3 major Criteria for Students / Parents to choose best Tutors available in the education industry LaoJee eCoaching website shall help you to choose the BEST tutor so that you may get the best education / knowledge.

General

We are proud to provide an easy access to qualified personal tutors. In a highly competitive economy looking for a highly skilled workforce and 270 million students in various schools, the demand for after-school coaching is immense. However, the absence of a proper fulfillment mechanism makes the process of finding a suitable tutor cumbersome and often unreliable.

eCoaching, being an Educationist committed to 360-degree education support, has chosen to tackle this issue with competence derived from a decade long experience in education segment. The eCoaching program has been designed to align interested students with well-trained tutors who are not only experts in their respective subjects but also conversant with the latest technological trends that make education easy and effective.

For students and parents

Welcome to our Premium Personal Tutorial Service [1-1 Tuition].

This program ensures premium academic experience delivered by an experienced tutor selected after thorough screening and trained to teach using our digital learning solutions and advanced study tools. All tutors selected for this program would be vetted for their educational as well as personal backgrounds to ensure effective, professional and transforming study environment.

Apart from committed professional service, eCoaching system would aid tutoring by providing access to vast online digital library, a mechanism for real time progress tracking, guided learning and a facility for evolving an effective study plan.

eCoaching has created a specialized infrastructure to conduct periodic online tests for independent assessment of student's progress. All results would be available for review by the student, tutor as well as the parents. The test results would be analyzed using our Analytics to uncover areas that need improvement for focused coaching.

The program would engage our experts with students and parents to review, offer counsel, and receive feedbacks.

To retain continuity, the we have provisions for tutor replacement if and when the appointed tutor takes leave. Prompt substitutes would be provided on request for change of an existing teacher if agreed by Management.

eCoaching offers user friendly internet based MIS to report all developments encompassing the student's progress.

We, as the leading educationist in the country would take all necessary steps to ensure a vibrant academic ecosystem for the overall intellectual development of the child.
