If you are looking for work, have recently lost your job, or are at risk of losing your job, LaoJee Jobs have ample opportunities and services to support you.

Looking for work can be stressful and tiring, especially if you don't have a plan. Handing out resumes and making cold calls can be hard on your self-confidence, but being strategic about your job hunt can re-invigorate you and give you the motivation to keep going. Here are 10 things you should try to do while you're looking for work.

1. If possible, do some investigating to find your own market value while you're still employed
2. Build your personal brand- list all achievements and make inventory of your strong skills.
3. Build your portfolio by taking on unpaid work [Work as Free internee]
4. Perfect your resume – Tailor made Resume for each job applied.
5. Treat the job hunt as a full time job and do not take it casually.
6. Take an online course to hone your skills – additional skills will give you edge on others.
7. Take breaks – just relax during un-employment period – take no tensions.
8. Get off your computer – don't spend hours and let LaoJee Jobs and other site help and assist you.
9. Let your Social network [Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter] know that you're looking for a Job.
10. Having a plan in place during your job search and do not do haphazard effort.

The strategies above can not only get you hired faster, they'll put you in good stead even after you're hired-- more connections, improved skills and a strong personal brand are what will set you apart as a valued member of the company.

Follow the above Scrabble rules and be successful in Job Hunting. Of-course we [LaoJee Jobs] are here to help and assist you.
